1 maintained) that has not been made public or is not otherwise available or accessible in the public 2 domain and that concerns or relates to the confidential or proprietary information of either party or 3 any third parties. This includes the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise 4 exchanged: (a) Sensitive personal identifying information, including, but not limited to, the personal 5 identifiers listed in LCR 5.2(a), individuals' private employment records, and documents which are 6 protected by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act; (b) Non-public financial, 7 accounting, commercial, proprietary data or applications, or other proprietary or trade secret 8 information of the parties; (c) Non-public financial, accounting, commercial, proprietary data or 9 applications, or other private or confidential information of any current or former customer or 10 business partner of the parties; (d) Information over which the designating party is obligated to 11 maintain confidentiality by law, contract, or otherwise; and (e) Information expressly designated as, 12 and reasonably believed by the designating party to be, confidential in nature.

13 3. SCOPE

14 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as defined 15 above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, 16 excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, 17 or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

18 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the 19 public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

20 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

21 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed or 22 produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 23 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 24 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material 25 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 26

1 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

2 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 3 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 4 confidential material only to:

5 (a) the receiving party and receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as 6 well as employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this 7 litigation unless the parties agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s 8 Eyes Only and is so designated;

9 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 10 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties agree 11 that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so designated;

12 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 13 litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

14 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

15 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 16 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service 17 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 18 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

19 (f) during their depositions, witnesses who have been disclosed and, in the 20 attorney’s professional judgment, to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary, and who have signed 21 the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the 22 designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to 23 depositions that reveal confidential material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may 24 not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this agreement;

25 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a

1 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information; and 2

3 (h) Mediators engaged by the parties.
 4

5 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 6 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, in 7 accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 8 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to 9 seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 10 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 11 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing 12 the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 13 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 14 seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 15 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
 16 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 17 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

18 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL
 19

20 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party or 21 non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take care to 22 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 23 designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or 24 oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, items, 25 or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit 26 of this agreement.

27 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 28 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily 29

1 encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 2 other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

3 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 4 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties 5 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

6 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement 7 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure 8 or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated 9 before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

10 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 11 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 12 the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains 13 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, 14 the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 15 markings in the margins).

16 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and 17 any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial 18 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony 19 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the 20 transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or 21 exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at 22 trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

23 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on 24 the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word 25 "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the 1 producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

2 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 3 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's right
 4 to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, 5 the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance 6 with the provisions of this agreement.

7 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

8 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 9 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 10 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, 11 or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to challenge a 12 confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original 13 designation is disclosed.

14 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 15 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential 16 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration 17 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other 18 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list the 19 date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face 20 meeting or a telephone conference.

21 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 22 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local 23 Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of persuasion 24 in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an 25 improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 26

1 expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain the material in 2 question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

3 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 4 OTHER LITIGATION

5 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
 6 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 7 must:

8 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 9 subpoena or court order;

10 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue 11 in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to 12 this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 13 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 14 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

15 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 Counsel in possession of another party's Confidential information shall maintain a written 17 information security program that includes reasonable administrative, technical, and physical 18 safeguards designed to protect the security and confidentiality of such Confidential information, 19 protect against any reasonably anticipated threats or hazards to the security of such Confidential 20 information, and protect against unauthorized access to or use of such Confidential information. To 21 the extent Counsel does not have an information security program they may comply with this 22 provision by having the Confidential information managed by and/or stored with eDiscovery 23 vendors or claims administrators that maintain such an information security program.

24 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential 25 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 26

1 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, 2 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 3 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, 4 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 5 Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6 If the receiving party discovers a breach of security, including any actual or suspected 7 unauthorized access, relating to another party's Confidential information, the receiving party shall:
 8 (a) promptly provide written notice to the designating party of such breach; (b) investigate and take 9 reasonable efforts to remediate the effects of the breach, and provide the designating party with 10 assurances reasonably satisfactory to the designating party that such breach shall not recur; and (c) 11 provide sufficient information about the breach that the designating Party can reasonably ascertain 12 the size and scope of the breach. If required by any judicial or governmental request, requirement, 13 or order to disclose such information, the receiving party shall take all reasonable steps to give the 14 designating party sufficient prior notice in order to contest such request, requirement, or order 15 through legal means. The receiving party agrees to cooperate with the designating party or law 16 enforcement in investigating any such security incident. In any event, the receiving party shall 17 promptly take all necessary and appropriate corrective action to terminate the unauthorized access.

18 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
 19 PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced 21 material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties 22 are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to 23 modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides 24 for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order 25 under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein. The parties agree to the protection of privileged and 26

1 otherwise protected documents against claims of waiver (including as against third parties and in 2 other federal and state proceedings) as follows:

3 (a) The disclosure or production of documents by a producing party subject to a legally 4 recognized claim of privilege, including without limitation the attorney-client privilege and the 5 work-product doctrine, to a receiving party, shall in no way constitute the voluntary disclosure of 6 such document.

7 (b) The inadvertent disclosure or production of any document in this action shall not 8 result in the waiver of any privilege, evidentiary protection, or other protection associated with such 9 document as to the receiving party or any third parties, and shall not result in any waiver, including 10 subject matter waiver, of any kind.

11 (c) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines that any document produced 12 by another party is or may reasonably be subject to a legally recognizable privilege or evidentiary 13 protection (“Protected Document”):

14 (i) the receiving party shall: (A) refrain from reading the Protected Document any more 15 closely than is necessary to ascertain that it is privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure; (B) 16 immediately notify the producing party in writing that it has discovered documents believed to be 17 privileged or protected; (C) specifically identify the Protected Documents by Bates number range or 18 hash value; and, (D) within ten days of discovery by the receiving party, return, sequester, or destroy 19 all copies of such Protected Documents, along with any notes, abstracts, or compilations of the 20 content thereof. To the extent that a Protected Document has been loaded into a litigation review 21 database under the control of the receiving party, the receiving party shall have all electronic copies 22 of the Protected Document extracted from the database. Where such Protected Documents cannot 23 be destroyed or separated, they shall not be reviewed, disclosed, or otherwise used by the receiving 24 party. Notwithstanding, the receiving party is under no obligation to search or review the producing 25 party’s documents to identify potentially privileged or work product Protected Documents.

(ii) If the producing party intends to assert a claim of privilege or other protection over documents identified by the receiving party as Protected Documents, the producing party will, within ten days of receiving the receiving party's written notification described above, inform the receiving party of such intention in writing and shall provide the receiving party with a log for such Protected Documents that is consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, setting forth the basis for the claim of privilege or other protection. In the event that any portion of a Protected Document does not contain privileged or protected information, the producing party shall also provide to the receiving party a redacted copy of the document that omits the information that the producing party believes is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection.

(d) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines it has produced a Protected Document:

(i) the producing party may notify the receiving party of such inadvertent production in writing, and demand the return of such documents. Such notice shall be in writing; however, it may be delivered orally on the record at a deposition, promptly followed up in writing. The producing party's written notice will identify the Protected Document inadvertently produced by Bates number range or hash value, the privilege or protection claimed, and the basis for the assertion of the privilege and shall provide the receiving party with a log for such Protected Documents that is consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, setting forth the basis for the claim of privilege or other protection. In the event that any portion of the Protected Document does not contain privileged or protected information, the producing party shall also provide to the receiving party a redacted copy of the document that omits the information that the producing party believes is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection.

(ii) The receiving party must, within ten days of receiving the producing party's written notification described above, return, sequester, or destroy the Protected Document and any copies, along with any notes, abstracts, or compilations of the content thereof. To the extent that a Protected

1 Document has been loaded into a litigation review database under the control of the receiving party, 2 the receiving party shall have all electronic copies of the Protected Document extracted from the 3 database.

4 (e) To the extent that the information contained in a Protected Document has already 5 been used in or described in other documents generated or maintained by the receiving party prior 6 to the date of receipt of written notice by the producing party as set forth in paragraphs (c)(ii) and 7 d(i), then the receiving party shall sequester such documents until the claim has been resolved. If 8 the receiving party disclosed the Protected Document before being notified of its inadvertent 9 production, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it.

10 (f) The receiving party's return, sequestering, or destruction of Protected Documents as 11 provided herein will not act as a waiver of the requesting party's right to move for the production of 12 the returned, sequestered, or destroyed documents on the grounds that the documents are not, in fact, 13 subject to a viable claim of privilege or protection. However, the receiving party is prohibited and 14 estopped from arguing that:

15 (i) the disclosure or production of the Protected Documents acts as a waiver of an 16 applicable privilege or evidentiary protection;
 17 (ii) the disclosure of the Protected Documents was not inadvertent; 18 (iii) the producing party did not take reasonable steps to prevent the disclosure of the 19 Protected Documents; or 20 (iv) the producing party failed to take reasonable or timely steps to rectify the error.

21 (g) Either party may submit Protected Documents to the Court under seal for a 22 determination of the claim of privilege or other protection. The producing party shall preserve the 23 Protected Documents until such claim is resolved. The receiving party may not use the Protected 24 Documents for any purpose absent this Court's order.

25 (h) Upon a determination by the Court that the Protected Documents are protected by the 26

1 applicable privilege or evidentiary protection, and if the Protected Documents have been sequestered 2 rather than returned or destroyed by the receiving party, and subject to the exceptions outlined in 3 Paragraph 10 below, the Protected Documents shall be returned or destroyed within 10 days of the 4 Court's order. The Court may also order the identification by the receiving party of Protected 5 Documents by search terms or other means.

6 (i) Nothing contained herein is intended to, or shall serve to limit a party's right to 7 conduct a review of documents, data (including electronically stored information), and other 8 information, including without limitation, metadata, for relevance, responsiveness, and/or the 9 segregation of privileged and/or protected information before such information is produced to 10 another party.

11 (j) By operation of the parties' agreement, the parties are specifically afforded the 12 protections of Fed. R. Evid. 502(e).

13 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

14 (a) Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each 15 receiving party, upon written request, must return all confidential material to the producing party, 16 including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon 17 appropriate methods of destruction.

18 (b) If Confidential material or Protected Documents have been loaded into any litigation 19 review database, the attorney for the party using such database shall have the responsibility of 20 ensuring that all such Confidential material or Protected Documents, including all associated images 21 and native files, are extracted from such databases (including any associated staging databases) and 22 destroyed. "Destroyed" shall mean deletion of documents from all databases, applications, and/or 23 file systems in a manner such that they are not readily accessible without the use of specialized tools 24 or techniques typically used by a forensic expert.

25 (c) Counsel of record for the parties may retain copies of any part of the Confidential

1 material or Protected Documents produced by others that has become part of counsel's official file
 2 of this litigation as well as abstracts or summaries of materials that reference Confidential material 3 or Protected Documents that contain counsel's mental impressions or opinions. Such copies shall 4 remain subject to the terms of this Protective Order.

5 (d) The parties, counsel of record for the parties, and experts or consultants for a party 6 shall not be required to return or to destroy any Confidential material or Protected Documents to the 7 extent such information is (i) stored on media that is generally considered not reasonably accessible, 8 such as disaster recovery backup tapes, or (ii) only retrievable through the use of specialized tools
 9 or techniques typically used by a forensic expert; provided that to the extent any Confidential 10 material or Protected Documents are not returned or destroyed due to the foregoing reasons, such 11 Confidential material or Protected Documents shall remain subject to the confidentiality obligations 12 of this Protective Order.

13 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 14 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

15 11. COMPUTATION OF TIME

16 The computation of any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Order shall be governed 17 by the provisions for computing time set forth in FRCP 6.

1 PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED
2

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any 4 documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or information, whether inadvertent or 5 otherwise, in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other federal or 6 state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those 7 documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection, or any other 8 privilege or protection recognized by law. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum 9 protection allowed by Fed. R. Evid. 502(d). The provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) do not apply.
10 Nothing contained herein is intended to or shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review of 11 documents, ESI or information (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or 12 segregation of privileged and/or protected information before production. Information produced in 13 discovery that is protected as privileged or work product shall be immediately returned to the 14 producing party.
